Date: ____/____/____

A piano proficiency is an invaluable tool that will prove to be a blessing throughout the student's life. In order to provide the best instruction in an organized and profitable manner, the following guidelines are set forth. Learning a musical instrument requires commitment and personal effort on the part of the student.

This agreement must be read and signed before any student will be considered for enrollment.

1. The fees for all students are as follows:

Annual Registration Fee: $35 (Due the first of August)
Monthly Lesson Fee: $70 (Due the first of each month)
Book Fees: Billed on monthly basis, as the student receives new books.

All checks must be made payable to Community Christian Academy

2. Lessons are given on a weekly basis, and are in thirty-minute (30) sessions. The student is responsible to be at each scheduled lesson. No credit will be given for missed lessons unless it is a cancellation by the instructor.
 - a. Credit will be issued for two vacation weeks per year for the student at the rate of $12.50 per week. However, a two-week notice must be given in order to qualify for the credit.
 - b. Credit will be issued for a maximum of two lessons missed due to illness.
3. Each student is assigned a regular lesson time. This time period is set aside just for that student, and the instructor will be available. If lessons are missed, due to illness or some other unavoidable circumstance, the instructor may be able to provide a "make up" lesson.
4. Lessons will be continued throughout the summer weeks, except as provided for two vacation weeks. Assigned lesson times may vary as scheduled by the instructor.
5. Each student is expected to practice the assigned work for the time designated by the teacher per day (excluding Sunday). Advanced students may be asked to practice for longer periods on occasion. The student is to complete their practice schedule and bring it with them to each week's lesson.
6. An annual recital will be given by each student in the Spring of the year. Dates will be announced, and pieces assigned no later than January of each year.

I have read and agree to this agreement as stated.
